

The no call list as it is works well to block unwanted calls by banks, telephone providers, etc.. Since the telephone is a purchased private service, the consumer should retain control over who accesses the line and uses my valuable time.